To the Home Secretary:

No extradition – Free Julian Assange now!

The Partisan Defence Committee demands the immediate and unconditional release of Julian Assange and an end to all extradition proceedings. This includes the possibility of extradition to Sweden on cooked-up “rape” charges, which were never anything more than a flimsy cover for handing Assange over to the vengeful US rulers.

Police laid siege to the Ecuadorian embassy in London for the nearly seven years Assange had found asylum there. Britain’s rulers and their senior partners in Washington have waged a vendetta against the WikiLeaks founder solely because he helped publicise the very real crimes of the British and US imperialists in Iraq, Afghanistan and around the globe. In lifting the lid on even a small portion of imperialist war crimes, Assange and Chelsea Manning carried out a heroic service on behalf of all the victims of US and British imperialism. Free Julian Assange!

Yours sincerely,

Kate Klein
